Membership to the Greenbrier Historical Society gives you the quarterly newsletter, Appalachian Springs, one copy of The Journal of the Greenbrier Historical Society, and 10% off gift shop purchases. Membership also gives you the satisfaction of knowing that you are supporting Greenbrier County's only collector, preserver and displayer of its history.

The Greenbrier Historical Society is dedicated to community enrichment through the education and preservation of the history and culture of the Greenbrier area.

1. To maintain and operate a museum that will discover, collect and preserve materials pertaining to the history of, or in any manner illustrative of the Greenbrier area, and will exhibit materials of this area.
2. To maintain and operate a research center which will be the depository of maps, manuscripts, iconographic and published materials of the Greenbrier area and will make these materials available to the public in order to promote historical research of the area.
3. To undertake an education program which will promote and stimulate public interest in and appreciation of the history of the Greenbrier area.
4. To disseminate knowledge about the Greenbrier area through the preparation, editing, and publication of historical materials descriptive and illustrative of these areas, especially through a journal and newsletter.
5. To reach out to the Greenbrier community through activities and events which will enlighten the public about the history of the Greenbrier area.
